▲ Host Jurisdiction Recognition Awards

Florida Highway Patrol

▲ John Youngblood Award of Excellence

The quiet, unassuming man from Oklahoma was a picture of single-minded dedication to commercial vehicle safety and possessed a tireless commitment to excellence in inspector training.

John worked as a staff member for the first two Challenge competitions (now called NAIC) and, on the date of the Oklahoma City bombing, was making preparations for Challenge '95. John was killed in that bombing. Without hesitation, John considered his association with the Challenge competition to be one of the highlights of his long career in safety. Every day of his life, John demonstrated the high standards and ideals that serve as the benchmark for all of us who follow. His leadership, unswerving dedication to duty, and pursuit of excellence continue to be an inspiration to all.

To honor the dedication John Youngblood had for commercial vehicle safety and for his peers, we asked the participants to vote for the contestant who exemplifies the following qualities: Spirit of Cooperation, Leadership, Professional Image, Dedication to Profession, Positive Attitude, Organizational Ability and Congeniality.

Sponsored by: Con-way Freight, Inc.

The Jimmy K. Ammons Grand Champion Award is the highest NAIC honor for roadside inspectors. This award is named after a close friend of the Commercial Vehicle Safety Alliance who exemplified training, education and uniformity of commercial vehicle enforcement programs. Jimmy brought enforcement and industry perspectives to the table to help foster solutions that made our highways safer. Jimmy also played integral roles in all of the Challenge events. His demonstration of knowledge and skills of commercial vehicle enforcement is unrivaled.

The Commercial Vehicle Safety Alliance honors his dedication to NAIC and CVSA by presenting this award to the Grand Champion of the North American Inspectors Championship.
